

Adoption Home Studies

Woodfords provides Adoption Home Studies to families looking to start the adoption process in Southern and Central Maine.

Adoptive families...

- ♥ Are from all walks of life
- ♥ Can be married or single
- ♥ Are age 21 or older
- ♥ Have reliable income
- ♥ Are in good health
- ♥ Have love to give

An Adoption Home Study is the first step in the adoption process and is required when a family wants to adopt. Woodfords provides adoption home study and pre/post adoptive services to families. The agency aims to act as a partner to interested families and help them realize their dream of adoption by providing the service of a completed home study.

Our staff will walk you through each step of the adoption home study process and will provide you with the support and education needed to complete the study. Woodfords' Home Study and related fees include:

- | | |
